Scripture

Philippians 1:1-18 NLT

Rev. Stephen Gray

This letter is from Paul and Timothy, slaves of Christ Jesus.

¹ I am writing to all of God's holy people in Philippi who belong to Christ Jesus, including the church leaders and deacons.

² May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

³ Every time I think of you, I give thanks to my God. ⁴ Whenever I pray, I make my requests for all of you with joy, ⁵ for you have been my partners in spreading the Good News about Christ from the time you first heard it until now. ⁶ And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns.

⁷ So it is right that I should feel as I do about all of you, for you have a special place in my heart. You share with me the special favor of God, both in my imprisonment and in defending and confirming the truth of the Good News. ⁸ God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus.

⁹ I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. ¹⁰ For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return. ¹¹ May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

¹² And I want you to know, my dear brothers and sisters, that everything that has happened to me here has helped to spread the Good News. ¹³ For everyone here, including the whole palace guard, knows that I am in chains because of Christ. ¹⁴ And because of my imprisonment, most of the believers here have gained confidence and boldly speak God's message without fear.

¹⁵ It's true that some are preaching out of jealousy and rivalry. But others preach about Christ with pure motives. ¹⁶ They preach because they love me, for they know I have been appointed to defend the Good News. ¹⁷ Those others do not have pure motives as they preach about Christ. They preach with selfish ambition, not sincerely, intending to make my chains more painful to me. ¹⁸ But that doesn't matter. Whether their motives are false or genuine, the message about Christ is being preached either way, so I rejoice. And I will continue to rejoice.

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

Offering Hymn 604

Come, All Christians, Be Committed

Verse 1

Come, all Christians, be committed To the service of the Lord.
Make your lives for Him more fitted, Tune your hearts with one accord.
Come into His courts with gladness, Each His sacred vows renew,
Turn away from sin and sadness, Be transformed with life anew.

Verse 2

Of your time and talents give Him, They are gifts from God above,
To be used by Christians freely To proclaim His wondrous love.
Come again to serve the Savior, Tithes and off'rings with you bring.
In your work, with Him find favor, And with joy His praises sing.

Verse 3

God's command to love each other Is required of ev'ryone.
Showing mercy to each other Mirrors His redeeming Son.
In compassion He has given Of His love that is divine;
On the cross sins were forgiven; Joy and peace are fully thine.
